SIGURD ANDERSON

GOVERNOR

PROCLAMATION

PIERRE

WHEREAS, the home is the basis for the moral and spiritual character of America; and

WHEREAS, the influence of the mother in the home is the deciding factor in creating a tranquil and orderly home atmosphere; and

WHEREAS, the world is today encompassed with the shadows of evil and unrest which make it necessary formankind to have a greater store of courage, faith, understanding and friendliness; and

WHEREAS, these qualities which are necessary for stability in every day living are acquired through the home and the guidance of the mother of the home; and

WHEREAS, South Dakotamothers are faced with the tremendous challenge of providing guidance and service in the home;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 5-11, 1953, as

and I urge all South Dakotans to observe the week in admiration, respect, and thoughtfulness for the mothers which they owe so much.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 2nd day of April, 1953.
